Brilliant Street Lighting Scheme

The Englewood Business men's association has completed a scheme for lighting 63rd st. from Peoria to Wallace sts. and from 59th to 67th sts. with five large light globes, four surmounted by the fifth every fifty feet, on each side of the street, and uniform as to positions. It will be the greatest "white way" in the city, and is bound to attract business and attention to the locality. The festoon system on 63rd st. which begins at the Union depot, ends at Wallace st., and then will come the big five globe system, making 63rd a well lighted street all the way through and doing away with the "dark spot" that has so long been a nuisance and drawback to Englewood convenience and business. Everyone in Englewood is interested in completing this work and the committee are pushing ahead against many obstacles and need your help. Let Mr. H. L. Irwin, 6430 Halsted st., know your interest, and see him.

Sure Indication of a Good Town

The surest and best indication of a live community is where every one you meet has something good to say of the town and their neighbors. They hang a man in California who dares to say that any one has ever been known to die in their delightful climate, or that anyone ever made less than a million a year, and the result is their towns are growing all over the mountains and reaching out in the Pacific ocean. While we don't advocate the persistent lying of the flowery state, we do think their example is deserving of emulation. The "knocker" injures his town and himself, the "booster" helps both. We have a certain number of soreheads in Englewood that have been cheating the undertaker and the cemetery a long time, that will have a horrible record to answer for if old St. Peter admits them to a hearing, and when the good Lord does call them in, they will be unwept unhonored and unsung, unless the vaudeville skit uses them as an example as the non-essential citizens. At no time has Englewood been so prosperous, at no time has commercial affairs been so promising, and we need only a little more unanimity; so come now, altogether, once more boost.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hall, after playing all winter in the southern circuit, are en route north and will open at McVicker's Feb. 2nd in their clever sketch, "Which One Shall He Marry?" They have had a very prosperous season.

Rupture cured. Send postal for booklet. Mulholland, 340 63rd St.—

The Englewood W. C. T. C. will give an entertainment in the Christian church, Stewart ave. and 66th pl., Thursday evening, Jan. 22nd, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Clyde Sheldon Shepard, entertainer.

Christopher K. C.: Are you out of coal? If so call up Normal 829. Will try to help you out. Pocahontas, hard coal and Solvay coke, Energy lump, egg or nut. Good coal all the time. Service, quality. L. Leindecker, 6541 Sangamon st. (Adv.)

We received a letter from the nurse of our old friend, John Whitley, who is at Las Encinas sanitarium, California, reporting "Uncle John" as fairly well and happy and expecting a visit from his son Charles. He sends good wishes to all of his old Englewood friends. "Uncle John" is 86 years of age.

Mrs. Harleigh Hartman, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Sullivan, for the past month, returned to her home in Springfield, Ill., this week, taking Baby Bill with her, but Patsy will remain with her grandparents for a longer visit.

Mr. H. E. Collins of Iowa City, Iowa, who has been spending the holidays here with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Clemmons, and family, left Tuesday for an extended trip thru the southland for the Donald-Richardson Co., of the above city, whom he represents.

The lunches and bakery department of Starkey's was such a success at 353 63rd st. in the Merrick building, that he has purchased the bakery of Max Mayer at 247 63rd st. (Guthrie's old stand), and hereafter will conduct both places, doing all the baking at the latter place.

Mrs. Mary W. Calvin, formerly Boisvert or Greenwood as translated, of 5627 South Wells st., has been in Baltimore hunting for her husband, who is a lion tamer. Mrs. Calvin assisted her husband in his work, but he disappeared mysteriously and the police are helping her to find him.

Mrs. Elliott W. Sproul died at her home, 10559 Seeley ave., in Morgan Park, Sunday, after several years' illness, and her funeral occurred Wednesday afternoon, interment being at Mt. Hope. Mrs. Sproul was an old resident of Englewood and had many friends here who will be pained to learn of her demise. She was a splendid woman, a good mother and a loving wife, and the sympathy of her old friends is extended to the bereaved family.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Few theatres in Chicago are so essentially neighborhood houses as is the pretty E. A. R. Theatre at 69th St. and Wentworth Ave. Manager "Johnny" Kempton, one of the cleverest booking agents in the big city, always sees that his house secures the cleanest and best pictures released. A glance at their displays in the Times or their reading notices will convince you of the up-to-date character of E. A. R. shows. The grand organ and extraordinary fine music is a feature appreciated by the discriminating public and as a consequence there is always a fine audience to witness every show, matinee or night, at the homey E. A. R.

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 16th and 17th. Last time to see Englewood's favorite, Wallace Reid, supported by Lila Lee and Theodore Roberts in the famous American play, "Hawthorne of the U. S. A." See Hawthorne break the bank at Monte Carlo! See him start a howling revolution, "fall for" a princess, stop the rebels with sheer Yankee nerve. See him shoot the blood of life into the doddering old kingdom of Bovinia and show 'em how we do things in the U. S. A. See this picture that is all punch.

Sunday, Jan. 18th. Double feature program. Dorothy Dalton in "His Wife's Friend." A neglected wife—her husband, cold, unloving, spending his hours in solitaire games of chess. An old sweetheart—caught making love to the lonely woman he had lost. A Chinese spy—seeking revenge on the man who had killed his son. A blackmailing baronet—plotting to sully the name of a woman he could not win. The husband slain—then mystery, thrills, battles of brawn and wits, and an end that will make you gasp! Also Century comedy, "Adam and Eve a la Mode," and Universal Current Events. Extra matinee attraction, Jas. J. Corbett in the serial supreme, "The Midnight Man."

Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 19th and 20th, Adolph Zukor presents Marguerite Clark in "A Girl Named Mary." If you were a mother whose daughter had been stolen; if after years of searching you found that daughter in poverty, offered her wealth, luxuries, beautiful clothes. And then—. If you loved and admired her all the more beacause she refused to own you—wouldn't that make a heart-stirring story? See it in this beautiful picturization of Juliet Wilbor Tompkins' famous novel, with winsome Marguerite Clark as "Contrary Mary."

Mary Pickford to Return

Owing to the failure of the electric forces last Tuesday evening, the great picture of Mary Pickford in "Heart of the Hills" will be repeated next Tuesday evening in its completeness to accomodate those of our patrons who were unable to see it last week.

Two days—double feature program—Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 21st and 22nd. Norma Talmadge in "The Isle of Conquest." Love, romance, adventure. Sailing the seas of happiness—a girl—a man—the only survivors of a shipwreck—a typical, tropical isle—prospects of a life-long isolation—the birth of love—and then came—her husband! "The Isle of Conquest" is a picture of thrills and beauty, adapted from the novel, "By Right of Conquest," by Arthur Hornblow. A play in which love redeems a wasting life. The story of a brave girl's fight for happiness; an absorbing drama that strikes straight to the heart. Magnificently produced, superbly enacted, with lavish settings. Also Charlie Chaplin and his sick-cylindered flivver are racing here for three days of traffic trouble and tire-less laugh ignition that will mend any crank case—in his newest million dollar picture, "A Day's Pleasure." There's traffic trouble ahead for motorists—Charles Chaplin in a shimmying flivver. Review a day in the life of a tire-less motorist. Charlie Chaplin in "A Day's Pleasure," his own version of "When is a Flivver?" Didja ever warm up the flivver and take the family out for "A Day's Pleasure?" So has Charlie Chaplin. See the result in his newest million dollar production. A dirty, low-down mud guard is one of the flivver villains in "A Day's Pleasure." A gala show for auto owners. Charlie Chaplin is a show-fer with his very own flivver.

At the E. A. R., Your Neighborhood Theatre, Sunday, January 18th, in "His Wife's Friend"

The popularity of the Harvard Theatre is well earned by the splendid shows put on there every day and every night. Manager "Jimmy" Costin is one of the best booking agents in the city and represents a line of the best houses in the town for which he can by combining his strength, secure plays that are not usually shown in out of the loop houses. It is always a safe bet that the first release of the best pictures will be at the Harvard and only the very best are featured here. It is noticeable that the "also" at the Harvard are good ones, as they secure comedies and short reels that are features of smaller houses. Every day there is something bright and fresh at the Harvard, matinees as good as the evening shows.

Big double feature program, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 16th and 17th, matinee and night. The one and only Charles Chaplin in his fourth million dollar comedy, "A Day's Pleasure." You'll say so. Poor Charles and his wife is a show for "everybody." You will "gas" about "A Day's Pleasure" for weeks. Don't overlook this opportunity to make the glooms "take the dust." Puncture your pocketbook for tickets for the family and come down for an evening's enjoyment—sympathizing with Charlie and family out for pleasure. Also Cosmo Hamilton's new powerful society play, "The Miracle of Love." A picture that lays bare the intrigues of British society, enters the halls of state, follows a forbidden romance to the end, culminating in love's great miracle. Magnificent sets, gorgeous gowns, blood-stirring action, and a plot that burns with emotion. Founded on Cosmo Hamilton's celebrated romance in the Cosmopolitan. Played by a brilliant cast, including Wyndham Standing, Lucy Cotton and Jackie Saunders. Filled with scenes you'll want to see.

Sunday and Monday, Jan. 18th and 19th, continuous 2 to 11:20 p. m. The enchanting Norma Talmadge in a story of love, romance and adventure, "The Isle of Conquest." A picture of thrills and beauty, adapted from the novel, "By Right of Conquest," by Arthur Hornblow. A play in which love redeems a wasting life. The story of a brave girl's fight for happiness; an absorbing drama that strikes straight to the heart. Magnificently produced, superbly enacted with lavish settings. A scream Sunshine 2-part comedy, Pathe News and matinee only "The Great Radium Mystery."

Tuesday, Jan. 20th, matinee and night. Katherine MacDonald in a remarkable production, "The Beauty Market." Did you ever think of society like this?—Fashionable society is to man a relaxation, to woman a profession in which success means position, marriage, her heart's desire. To its glittering circle men bring wealth, women beauty, for the great exchange. Ah, the heartaches and the hidden tears that sear the soul behind the smiling face in fashion's cold exchange—"The Beauty Market."

Three big special days for Harvard Theatre patrons, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Jan. 21st, 22nd and 23rd, matinee and night, "Everywoman," with an all-star cast, including Violet Heming, Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Edythe Chapman, Bebe Daniels, Irving Cummings, James Neill,

NORMA TALMADGE

In "The Isle of Conquest," Sunday and Monday, Jan. 18th and 19th

Raymond Hatton, Noah Beery, Tully Marshall. "Everywoman," on the screen, takes on more nearly the nature of a great spectacle than anything heretofore revealed in the silent drama, if we except Mr. Griffith's "Intolerance." It is a series of beautiful screen pictures, but the much-sought "story interest" is not lacking. The story describes the journey of "Everywoman" in quest of King Love. She thinks she may find him on the stage and tries that route, relying on the influential friendship of Wealth. But Dissipation steals away Beauty, after Modesty has been made very ill, and only Youth stays with her. Before she leaves Wealth she entertains Passion, but learns his true nature and finally finds real happiness in Love. The big ensemble scene of the picture is that in which Wealth entertains many friends in honor of Everywoman. It is a gorgeous scene with a prancing chorus that suggests the best of Ziegfeld and Sennett. But the smaller, more intimate scenes, the ones that really tell the story, are well handled, including the wooing of Everywoman successively by Wealth, Passion and Love.

Always The Best... Better Than The Rest
Refined Gold Edge Screen
LINDEN THEATRE
63rd Street at Halsted

Thursday and Friday, Jan. 15th and 16th, the king of funny men, Charlie Chaplin, in "A Day's Pleasure," a show for those who auto and those who ought to. Charlie's troubles begin when he attempts to crank the family touring car, a remnant of the Dark Ages, and which conveyance might be barred from the more exclusive streets. This one will make your risibilities hit on all twelve. Don't overlook this opportunity to make the "Glooms" "take the dust."

Friday, Jan. 16th, an all-star cast production with Mahon Davies in the title role, "The Cinema Murder." Behind the scenes, on the stage, in the photoplay studio, what do you know of the life there? Rumors? Gossip? Startling stories! Come and see the "inside," intimately portrayed in this vivid Oppenheim romance of love, conflict and intrigue among those who live—and those who prey—on the stage and screen. Struggle of a beautiful girl to win as an actress—and the price she was asked to pay.

At the "Popular Linden" Friday and Saturday, the 23rd and 24th

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 18th, 19th and 20th, another big all star cast production, "Everywoman." Greatest woman picture ever filmed! The loves, temptations, yearnings of a modern woman's life—in drama that sways the senses with its beauty, stirs every emotion with its power. See the battle of wealth and passion—amazing New Year's Eve cafe carousals in New York's "Midnight Joy Belt."

Special three-day engagement, starting Sunday, Jan. 18th, the great stage success, "Everywoman," with an all-star cast, including Violet Heming, Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Edythe Chapman, Bebe Daniels, Irving Cummings, James Neill, Raymond Hatton, Noah Beery, Tully Marshall. "Everywoman," on the screen, takes on more nearly the nature of a great spectacle than anything heretofore revealed in the silent drama, if we except Mr. Griffith's "Intolerance." It is a series of beautiful screen pictures, but the much-sought "story interest" is not lacking. The story describes the journey of Everywoman in quest of King Love. It is a gorgeous scene with a prancing chorus that suggests the best of Ziegfeld and Sennett. But the smaller, more intimate scenes, the ones that really tell the story, are well handled, including the wooing of Everywoman successively by Wealth, Passion and Love. Also good comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 21st and 22nd. Katherine MacDonald, the American Beauty, in a drama of society for people who think, "The Beauty Market." Foreword to the play: Fashionable society is to man a relaxation, to woman a profession, in which success means position, marriage, her heart's desire. To its glittering circle men bring wealth; women beauty; for the great exchange. Ah, the heartaches and the hidden tears that sear the soul behind the smiling face in fashion's cold exchange, "The Beauty Market."

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 23rd and 24th, another Maurice Tourneur, master production, "Victory, featuring an all-star cast, including Jack Holt, Seena Owen, Lon Chaney and Wallace Beery. Love and gold! The lure of tropic isles, where nature laughs and homeless rakes woo fortune. A dirty port on a sunny sea, where rogues have drifted, seeking loot. Love and gold! A man with a clean heart, a woman, and a struggle that sets the blood on fire. See it. A tale with a "punch" in every foot of film.

ADDITIONAL ENGLEWOOD NEWS

See Barkey's shoe prices. (Adv.)

We are sending out a number of sample copies this week, and if the new reader likes the Times, we would gladly add their names to our list.

Owing to the scarcity of print paper all newspapers are compelled to cut down in size and number of pages. This means everyone must "boil down" their locals and reading matter.

Have you ever tried the pure candies sold by Kellners in bulk and bags? It is pure unadulterated and very reasonable in price. Special sale every Saturday. 443 W. 63rd St.

Class 43 of the Englewood Christian church will celebrate its twentieth anniversary and seventeenth annual banquet in the church parlors, Feb. 19th, the ex-presidents of the class to be guests of honor

Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Hokamp would like to meet the people of Englewood. Mr. Hokamp is the proprietor of the Hokamp Boot Shop at 409 W. 63rd St., near Stewart. Dahlquist's old shoe store. (Adv. tf)

Dr. Albert Fisher of 6340 Stewart ave. received word of the death of his son, Dr. Albert Fisher Jr., last Friday in his home, Syracuse, N. Y. He suffered an attack of heart failure and died in his automobile while driving from his home to his office. He ranked very high in his profession as an osteopath physician and had practiced twenty years in Syracuse. He leaves a wife and two sons. He was the last of four sons of our Dr. Fisher, and his sudden death comes as a sad blow to his father, who has the sympathy of his many friends.

Boy Scouts of America

Southwest District

Southwest District opens the new year with 41 troops of Scouts. The following 37 Scouts graduated recently from a patrol leaders' course in the district: Gunner Anderson, Elmer Bender, Robert Blew, Robert Barr, Myron Boehm, Alfred Cone, Ed Cutter, Albert Coe, Calvin Carlisle, Lawrence Cadwell, Raymond Cadwell, Leonard Dresser, George Downing, Hunter Elder, Harry Ebbert, Herbert Furber, Roy Fullen, Paul Green, Don Hall, John Hartung, Starr Jones, Albert Jewett, Roy Leatherman, Alex Murray, Kenneth McIntyre, William Pearce, Willard Parsons, James Schaefer, William Schmidt, Wesley Tegtmeier, Teddy Van Pelt, Ralph Wilcox, Kirby Whyte, Ewald Wangeman, Julius Wangeman, Lewis Younger, George Zobac.

This week opens three more courses in different parts of the district for patrol leaders. These courses are of five weeks duration.

West End—Opening Friday, Jan. 16th, 3:45 to 5 p. m., at Ogden Park field house, 64th st. and Racine ave.

Ridge—Opening Wednesday, Jan. 14th, 3:45 to 5 p. m., at Morgan Park Congregational church.

Englewood High School Gleanings

The Junior Prom

Great preparations are being made for the annual junior promenade and reception to be given by the junior classes of the school in honor of the senior classes on Thursday, Jan. 15th, in the new gymnasium. The parents of all juniors and seniors are cordially invited to come and take part in the "house warming" for the new part of the school.

Music for dancing is to be furnished by the Graves-Smith orchestra, and an entertaining program is in store for all. The gymnasium is to be decorated, and the rooms on the first floor near the gymnasium will be furnished with rugs, chairs, and palms, and will be used as reception rooms for the parents.

A committee of parents, teachers and pupils is making an effort to offer something of interest to everyone. Among these committee members are Miss Allin, dean of the girls; Mr. Lucas, faculty advisor of the Engleboosters; Louis Bowman, president of the 3-A class; Robert Tower, president of the 3-B class; John Metz, manager for the 3-B's, and Joel Nystrom, manager for the 3-A's.

Address by Dr. Coulter

The pupils of Englewood High school have again been very fortunate in being able to hear another one of the interesting educational speeches provided by the Engleboster association every month. Monday evening Dr. John M. Coulter of the department of botany of the University of Chicago addressed an assembly of juniors and seniors in the junior hall. His subject was "The Way to Success." He impressed upon his audience that in order to be successful, three evil qualities must be overcome: egotism, criticism, and selfishness. The pupils who heard the speech enjoyed it greatly and learned a lesson which they will not easily forget. We sincerely hope that Dr. Coulter will be able to visit us again.

Personal News

The following former Englewood High school students have secured scholarships at the University of Chicago:

Katherine Gerhart, the Strong scholarship, carrying with it high honors and a sum of money aside from tuition.

Esther Sabel, remission of tuition.

Fred McCaw, remission of tuition.

Helen Snyder, service scholarship amounting to tuition in return for tinting lantern slides in nature study courses.

Edna Stallinger is doing university work and holding a position as secretary to Dr. Wendt of the department of chemistry.

Rally—American Legion 100% American

The Gresham Woman's club will meet this afternoon at half past one at the Gresham school.

Mrs. Mary Nagle, we are sorry to say, is confined to her home, 519 78th st., by serious illness.

Fred Murley, who had been confined to his home at 7748 Sangamon st. by illness, is able to be about again.

E. H. Stellman has returned to his home at 7837 Carpenter st. after undergoing an operation at St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. Thomas Knowles of 7819 Carpenter st. left last Friday for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

Send Gresham and Auburn news to correspondent, Mrs. Pauline F. Palmer, 1753 W. 96th St. Phone Beverly 2097.

Mrs. W. G. Trower, the wife of a former pastor of the Seventh Presbyterian church, spent a pleasant week among Gresham friends.

St. Sabina's Social club is arranging for a dance and card party at the Masonic Temple, Wednesday, the 21st.

Buy your correspondence stationery by the pound with envelopes to match and save money at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd St.—adv.

Dorothy Mabel, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boldt, 7518 Stewart ave., was laid to rest in Mt. Hope cemetery on Friday, Jan. 9th.

Gresham police officers haven't had anything exciting the past week and it really looks as if the entire district is pretty well taken care of.

Miss Wall, 87th and Green sts., organist at St. Margaret's church, 99th and Throop sts., is spending a vacation in New York.

Mr. Gottlieb Reinhold, 7910 Green st., was laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Member of Thomas post No. 5, G. A. R.

Auburn Park Knights of Columbus will hold a dancing and card party at the Masonic Temple, 7332 Union ave., Friday evening, Jan. 30th.

The aldermanic campaign is beginning to show life and there will be several Democratic as well as Republican names from the south section.

Little Gladys Irvine, 9 years old, was very severely injured on Dec. 27th by being struck by an automobile at 74th and Halsted sts. Her right thigh bone was fractured and she was badly cut and bruised.

We want Loomis blvd. extended from Marquette rd. to the city limits. Boost for this and a park in our locality, or Hyde Park will be the show place and we will have no share—only paying the bills.

Miss Catherine Balun, 8550 Aberdeen st., entertained at a bunco party on Jan. 10th. The guests enjoyed an impromptu dancing party after the game, and were also favored by some fancy dancing by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Balun of Englewood.

We received notice that "another fair maiden of Auburn Park" had received a $400 diamond engagement ring, and the query is—who is she? Gosh! anyone having that much money should have been married long ago, say we.

George Melvin Scarff, formerly of Gresham, has resigned his position as freight tariff inspector of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad. On Feb. 1st he is to become freight traffic manager of the Allith-Prouty Hardware Co. of Danville, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Scarff will make their home in Danville.

The painting of the police station yellow does not appear to affect the speeding autoists who insist upon making a speedway of Halsted st. and Vincennes ave. Why not take it up in the Improvement club and prosecute some of them to the limit? It is the only way to prevent the maiming and death of our children.

Daughters of Veterans Install

Mrs. Ellsworth Tent No. 5, D. of V., held their installation last Friday, the 9th. Quite a number of national and department and past national and past department officers were present nd were escorted to the president's station for introduction.

Sister Josephine Flood, department inspector, read the report of the retiring president, Sister Emma Minnick, for the year and we must say it was a splendid report. Commander Fulton of the Department of Illinois was also present and gave us a few moments of his time in speech.

The funeral of modest elegance

Sorrow's tribute to a brother who has gone upon the long journey is one of fitting funeral arrangements where the loved ones can say a sad farewell. We will respect your wishes in every way and will render a bill that shows a moderate charge.

Army Recruiting in Englewood

The army recruiting station located at 6001 S. Halsted st. will be kept open evenings until 9 o'clock every night in the week except Sunday. A member of the recruiting detail will be on duty there to take care of all applications for enlistment or to answer any questions relative to the war risk insurance, allotments, travel pay and bonuses. The one year enlistments in the army are being discontinued and it will soon be too late for any one to enlist for the short term. Already all branches except the artillery, engineers and chemical warfare service have been closed for the one-year period and it is expected these will soon be closed also. Any previous service men who are considering re-enlistment should not delay, as it will soon be too late to take on for anything less than three years. The Englewood station has made an excellent record since its establishment and it is earnestly desired by the recruiting officers that this record be maintained.

Income Tax Notice

Your income tax for the year 1919 is due and payable on and after January 1st, the last day of payment being March 15, 1920.

For the convenience of the taxpayers in this neighborhood, Collector of Internal Revenue Julius F. Smietanka has established a branch office at 712 W. 63rd St.

Twenty United States Deputy Collectors are stationed at this office in charge of General Deputy James Hyland. These men will offer any services necessary to assist you in making up your return and you are requested to file your return and pay tax as early as possible.

All other Government business may also be transacted at this office.

Englewood Basketball League

The Y. M. C. A. is organizing a heavyweight and a lightweight basket ball league among the churches of the South Side which have such teams. Any team desiring to enter should get in touch with the Y. M. C. A. office at once as the first teams to apply will necessarily get first consideration. Your representative should be present at the next meeting at 6307 Harvard Ave., Friday, January 16th, at 7:30 P. M.

Taft Praised Bankers' Work

President William Howard Taft in his talks to American bankers praised the work they are doing.

Did you ever stop to consider what this country would be without banks?

There never were as many bank depositors in the United States as there are today.

Are you a depositor?

If you are not, see us today about opening an account.

The "Nalnacs" of St. Brendan's parish will give a card and bunco party at the Knights of Columbus club house, 6323 Harvard ave. Wednesday evening, Jan. 28th.

Little 5-year-old Vivian Horn of 6959 May st. watching other children burning paper, tried it herself and set her dress on fire and was so badly burned that she died Monday.

There will undoubtedly be another increase of rents of apartments this spring owing to the scarcity of new buildings and the increase in prices of everything pertaining to building including taxes and wages of all sorts.

The principal event in local politics is James Rea's candidacy for committeeman of the 32nd ward. While "Jimmy" is of course the Thompson candidate his personal popularity is such that he will command a very large vote.

Rev. H. J. Bane, late of Denver Colo., has been appointed to the pastorate of the Sangamon st. M. E. church, 64th and Sangamon sts. Mr. Bane is a competent, educated and enthusiastic young man, and comes from the Berkley Park church of Denver, where he made a splendid showing which we feel confident he will repeat here. He is living at 6409 Sangamon st. and is welcomed to our midst.

The three stores at 6339-41 and 43 Halsted st have been sold and as soon as the leases of the present tenants expire, which will be one year from next May, a handsome new modern block will be erected on the premises.

George Pfeler is winding up his present hardware business and preparing to retire. George is too busy a man to give up the game as yet and we predict he will be back in the field in some shape soon again.

The so-called "chain" stores are about the only ones who refuse to contribute to the grand lighting scheme over which so much labor is being expended and which will make this part of town "the great white way." Such stores have no local interest and are only in business for the money they can take away from the town, like a traveling circus.

Mrs. C. O. Anderson, formerly of 6431 Sangamon st., passed away at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Dahlman 1050 W. 57th st. Mrs. Anderson has been a resdent of Englewood 46 years and a charter member of the Swedish Mission church, 55th and Wells st. Services to be held at Swedish Mission church, Saturday, 1:30 p. m. Interment at Oak Hill cemetery.

An open meeting of the P. W N. A. will be held at the Masonic Temple, 17th floor at 8 p. m. for the purpose of turning in banks that were distributed at Christmas time and for reporting on membership secured. Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. Thos. E. Reynolds 6346 Peoria st., Friday at 1 p. m. for the purpose of tying comforters for the Children's Home. All are welcome to come that are interested in the home.

After 17 years of successful business on Halsted st. and making a reputation unexcelled for square upright and honorable dealings, Mr Theodore Linstrum, the Englewood hatter at 5946 Halsted st., has taken into partnership Mr. Edward C. Lindstrom, another experienced and practical hatter and men's furnisher and the firm will be known as Linstrum & Co. The new firm are out to make this a big year in their business and carry a stock of men's furnishings that for quality and price well deserve trade. Their business of cleaning, blocking and shaping of hats will of course be continued on a larger scale and patrons in the past will need no word of how excellent their work is. Drop in and see the new firm.

Old Time Revival Meetings

Old time revival meetings are being held every night and Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock at 6640 Halsted st. under direction of Pastor George C. Brinkman. If you are sick or in want of salvation, you are especially invited. Evangelist Tribbett and pianist is there every night. All kinds of sickness healed thru prayer—no charge. Come and bring your sick. Strangers cordially invited.

Interesting Series of Meetings

Last week the six Protestant churches of West Englewood held a series of meetings at the different churches. These were well attended and served to bring the congregations into closer fellowship with one another.

Sunday, Jan. 11th, 1920, the final meeting was held at Thoburn Methodist church, 64th and Paulina sts. at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Rude of the Ashland Christian church led in prayer, Rev. Bauman of the Ogden Park M. E. church led the responsive scripture reading, and Mrs. Mabel Doll rendered a solo, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings, Oh, Lord of Hosts." Rev. Harold L. Bowman of Woodlawn Presbyterian church delivered the sermon, taking for his text the sixth verse of the first chapter of Deuteronomy. Rev. Hodson of the Marquette Road Baptist church pronounced the benediction. A large audience attended this meeting, and demonstrated that the greatest harmony exists between the sister churches.

Judge Fry Lectures at Thoburn

Sunday evening, Jan. 11th, Judge Fry of the Court of Domestic Relations lectured to a large audience at Thoburn M. E. church.

The afternoon unlimited team will play a Grand Crossing team at 4 o'clock at Grand Crossing.

Hamilton Park Library

The librarian reports the following new books received: The Great Desire; Substitute Millionaire; Tree Air; The Yellow Typhoon; A Woman Named Smith; The Disturbing Charm; Comrades of Peril; Linda Condon; Jeremy; Dope; A Damsel in Distress; Social Games and Group Dances; Training of a Salesman.

Juveniles

Our Little Quebec Cousin; A Little Maid of Old Philadelphia; Short Stories of New America; Tom Strong—Lincoln's Scout; Lost With Lieutenant Pike; Seven Peas in One Pod; Burgess Bird Book for Children; Boys' Airplane Book; Orchard and Meadow.

Civic Music Community Chorus

To quote ye esteemed editor, "Start the year right" by joining the Civic Music Community Chorus which rehearses every Monday night at Hamilton Park Field House. There is no better opportunity for choral training to be had than that afforded by John Norton, choirmaster of St. James Episcopal Church, who directs the Hamilton Park organization. Music students and choir singers, and just plain lovers of song, are invited to join. For particulars come to the park any Monday night at eight o'clock or call up Stewart 31.

E. B. M. A. Entertain Wm. J. Bryan

With less than two hours' notice the Englewood Businessmen's association assembled a crowd that packed the Empress theatre Wednesday at 11 o'clock to meet this distinguished commoner and the short address he delivered was one that well repaid those who sacrificed to be present. Few organizations in the city could get out such an assemblage in so short a time and it is complimentary both to the honored guest and the association.

Englewood Hospital Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Englewood Hospital Auxiliary will be held as usual at the hospital Friday, January 16th, at 2:00 P. M. preceded by the meeting of the board.

Victory Buttons for Naval Reserves

The Navy Recruiting Station, 608 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, is in receipt of information from the Navy Department recommending the issuance of Victory Buttons to members of the Naval Reserve Force who served on active duty between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and who have been released from active duty.

These buttons can be procured upon presentation of release to the commanding officer.

Yours very truly,
F. R. BERG,
Lieut. Com., Recruiting Officer.

Attention of Our Ministers

Pastors of all churches or anyone uthorized, is invited to send us church notices of services, etc. We ask that they be brief and to the point. We prefer that they be renewed weekly giving subject of sermons, etc., but insist that they be not allowed to grow stale, and unless ordered otherwise, we shall remove a notice that has been unchanged for more than a month. We publish all such notices free, and ask that they be sent in no later than Wednesday noon.

Snaps for Army Recruits

Uncle Sam has opened a recruiting station at 6001 S. Halsted St. in charge of Corporal Gallagher and is telling some mighty interesting stories of new stations recruits are now assigned to at Panama and the South. They want men who can play baseball as that seems to be the "boys" chief occupation just now. Good fishing, salt sea bathing are among the other attractions. The zone quota is 3,400 and Englewood will be well represented judging from the interest now taken in the service. Ask Corporal Gallagher about it and he will tell you some pretty stories as he has served there and all over the world. The staff has been increased to four men now and they have a tank and searchlight operator.

Exhibition of Army Work

The detail from the regular army which has been working at the new army recruiting station, 6001 Halsted St., has been increased from two to four men, including Corporal Roy M. Gallagher, the non-commissioned officer in charge of this district. The new men who are stationed in the Englewood district in addition to Corporal R. M. Gallagher and Pvt. 1st Class Wm. Raymond, are Corporal Charles Killilea and Pvt. 1st Class Frank J. Dedic. Corporal Killilea is here on the detail with the army tank that is on duty in Chicago and in a few days expects to give an exhibition with the tank and the big auto-serchlight in this neighborhood. The searchlight is in charge of Srgt. Zover and in conjunction with the tank will give night and day performances in the vicinity of the recruiting station and the corner of 63rd and Halsted Sts Full details as to the time, etc. of this exhibition will be published in the next issue of this paper.

A special performance will probably be arranged for the benefit of the military organizations connected with the schools in this district to take place in the vicinity of the school building.

During the exhibition a limited number of young men will be allowed to ride in the tank and have the opportunity to see for themselves the inner workings and methods of operating. Application for this privilege should be made in advance at the recruiting station, 6001 S. Halsted St., in person.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

Two days—attraction extraordinary—Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 19th and 20th, matinee and night. The season's greatest photo-dramatic achievement, "The Law of Nature." The big special production, "The Law of Nature," which comes to the Halsted Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 19th and 20th, is one of the season's most successful photoplays. The story was written by Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson and David G. Fischer, and was produced by David G. Fischer. As the story unfolds a lesson is taught that is well worth the time spent in learning it. Vincent Coleman, a young man of wealth and position, but who is weak in character, falls an easy prey to the wiles of Frances Nelmoyer, who plays the part of a "vampire." She leads Coleman a merry chase through the seven reels, only to lose out in the end when the young man is reunited with his young wife, who has married him in an effort

VINCENT COLEMAN in "THE LAW OF NATURE"

At the Halsted Theatre Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 19th and 20th to reform him. There is a moral for all in the story and the climax which comes at the end of the story is as big as any we have seen in motion pictures for some time. In addition to Vincent Coleman and Frances Ne-Moyer the cast includes David G. Fischer, Dixie Lee, Harold Salter, Virginia Thorn and others.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies Bargain Week Day Matinees—Seats 18c—Use Coupon in Display Advs.

Frank Lalor's "Aviator Girls," a rapidly paced, colorful and varied "girls and music," show will be the attraction at the Englewood the week starting Sunday matinee, Jan. 18th. Two sparkling, rollicking, side splitting musical comedies entitled respectively "Flying High" and "Honeymoon Beach" are introduced. Wit and song keep things moving from start to finish. There are quite a number of big singing hits and a dainty dancing chorus of good-looking, shapely girls whose individual voices are above the average and who have been carefully trained to be expert and graceful dancers. The costumes are pretty, unique and thoroughly Parisian; among them are everything from the abbreviated dress of the Milan ballet to the harem skirt from the land of the Turkish sultan. Tired workers in need of diversion will find in this show a bunch of mad cap comedians whose versatility is pronounced. Their work is carefully thought out and dovetailed into the performance in a most unexpected way, radiating humor and compelling laughter. There are many specialties that help lift this production above the usual burlesque, and the scenery and stage settings are entirely new and strictly up-to-date.

Ida Blanchard, Soubrette, With the "Aviator Girls"

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe offers for the coming three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the wonderful John P. Conroy and sister in their great aquatic act, coming direct from the New York Hippodrome. The Conroys are acknowledged to be the most beautiful formed man and woman in existence, and their graceful dancing, singing, posing and high diving the greatest feature ever offered on the vaudeville stage. The most expensive act ever booked outside of the "loop" houses, but there will be no increase in price at the Marlowe during these three days. The flying dive into the 10,000 gallon tank is the most beautiful and daring ever attempted. Lovers of the rare and beautiful will not miss this engagement.

The Marlowe Hippodrome has long been acknowledged as the real amusement center of Englewood and under the present management it has ever surpassed its past reputation. The constant changes of program are such as to make a new show every night, and the features are the best shown anywhere. Constantly on the lookout for all that is good and new, they secure the brightest sketches and musical comedy as well as vaudeville acts that come to but few outside houses. Every Friday they offer besides a good feature picture, their professional vaudeville review of eight or more big loop acts. Saturday and Sundays they have their big double headliner bill of vaudeville extraordinary, every act a feature direct from the loop. In addition at the matinees Saturday and Sunday they show the great "Pearl White" in "The Black Secret," and make special prices for the kiddies.

On Mondays they have besides a corking good feature picture, comedy and six vaudeville acts, a hat contest at the first show in which some young lady in the audience gets a fine hat of her own choosing, the audience selecting the lady. Tuesdays they have their local song contest, and a splendid piano lamp goes to the favorite, all of which is in addition to the regular show. On Wednesday and Thursday besides the serial of Jim Corbett in the "Midnight Man" they have nearly an hour of bright and sprightly musical comedy with a dozen or more pretty girls in the chorus. Every time and all the time the Marlowe is a winner and you play safe by going there any evening. Try it.

NATIONAL THEATRE

The positive engagement of the gripping and sensational drama, "Broken Threads," is now definitely announced as the bill for the National Theatre Stock Players at the National Theatre immediately following the present week's production of "Lombardi, Ltd." This is one of the rare times when a great big New York success is released in the same season of its New York run. But "Broken Threads" is so timely and in such great demand that rather than organize an endless chain of inferior second companies, the author, Ernest Wilkes, and the owners have decided to accept the larger and certain stock royalties. For this reason, Manager O'Donnell has been enterprising enough to bring this epochal drama to us while it is fresh.

Also the triumph of the play was emphatic. It was greeted as one of the most powerful stories that had ever been unfolded from the footlights. The story of a girl, who had sacrificed everything to provide her mother with the luxuries to which she had been accustomed before the death of her husband had left her in poverty, is saddened further by the entrance into her life of the one man she could love. Wilkes develops a heartrending and powerful struggle between the girl's sense of duty and the man's great love. "Broken Threads" opens Sunday matinee, Jan. 18th.

A picture that lays bare the intrigues of British society, enters the halls of state, follows a forbidden romance to the end, culminates in love's great miracle. Magnificent sets, gorgeous gowns, blood-stirring action, and a plot that burns with emotion. Founded on Cosmo Hamilton's celebrated romance in the Cosmopolitan. Played by a brilliant cast, including Wyndham Standing, Lucy Cotton and Jackie Saunders. Filled with scenes you'll want to see! A wonderful entertainment. Don't miss it! Bring the family!

"A Day's Pleasure"

The picture starts with what is believed to be the funniest scene ever filmd in the history of the motion picture industry. The incident takes place on a busy street corner when the family automobile, through unknown reasons, refuses to abide by the wishes of the diligent driver and an exasperated traffic officer.

The picture is concluded on an excursion boat, whereon a negro jazz band adds its soul-tormenting tones to the unsettled stomachs of the participants of a rough voyage.

A REVIEW

"Every Woman," on the screen, takes on more nearly the nature of a great spectacle than anything heretofore revealed in the silent drama, if we except Mr. Griffith's "Intolerance." It is a series of beautiful screen pictures, but the much-sought "story interest" is not lacking.

The story describes the journey of Everywoman in quest of King Love. She thinks she may find him on the stage and tries that route, relying on the influential friendship of Wealth. But Dissipation steals away Beauty, after Modesty has been made very ill, and only Youth stays with her.

Before she leaves Wealth she entertains Passion, but learns his true nature and finally finds real happiness in Love.

The big ensemble scene of the picture is that in which Wealth entertains many friends in honor of Everywoman.

It is a gorgeous scene with a prancing chorus that suggests the best of Ziegfeld and Sennett. But the smaller, more intimate scenes, the ones that really tell the story, are well handled, including the wooing of Everywoman successively by Wealth, Passion and Love.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

There is nothing like good, solid optimism
To make all our troubles vanish in the air.
If we get our victuals daily we can lift our voices gaily
In a song that chants farewell to cark and care.
Clothes and shoes, and other luxuries, what are they?
To such bright and joyous souls as you and I?
When we've paid the last installment on the beefsteak.
And have satisfied the mortgage on the pie?

Does that Christmas ring turn your finger black yet?

Among other things "red" that are being cleaned up by the government is the "red" noses.

For a good all 'round money maker commend us to the cow that can by munching free grass give 16-cent milk which is made into 80-cent butter. Bossy has the Standard Oil beat to a frazzle.

It don't make any difference whether you subscribe for "The Republican" Mayor Thompson's official organ or not, you will get it free if you will accept it, although it is a straight violation of the postal regulations to send it to others than subscribers.

Englewood is not doing its duty Here it is three weeks almost in the leap year and we haven't heard of a single "leap." Now girls, don't be shy, get action. Of course I am married, but then there are other handsome, perfect men like me; try them, or at least one of them.

We should have at least one more policeman to the five-mile beat to keep the other poor lone fellow company. Think of a beat from 55th to 75th st., Stewart ave. to Wallace st., and then expect one man to "cover" it. And then think of the hundreds of perfectly good coppers who are doing "special" work for some favored enterprise or institution.

Englewood Woman's Club

The initial meeting of the class to study the Constitutional Convention was held at the Englewood Woman's club Monday, Jan. 12th under the leadership of Miss Jeanette Bates, L. L. D. This class, which will prove both interesting and instructive, will meet each Monday morning promptly at 10 o'clock and is open to the public.

At 11 o'clock the department of music furnished a program in which the children of the Fallen school took part, and Miss Martha Cook sang a group of songs. A brief address was given by Canon Savage of England, who spoke of the needs of Serbia.

In the afternoon, Mr. Ferdinand Schevill addressed the club, his subject being "The Balkan Question."

On Jan. 19th the department of literature will present Bertram G. Nelson, who will give a dramatic recital, "Julius Caesar," and Mrs. Elsdon will sing some of the songs of Shakespeare. This program will begin at 11 o'clock and be preceded by the class studying the Constitutional Convention.

In the afternoon Dr. Rachell Yarros will speak, her subject being "Girls," and "How to Tell Little Children."

Workers are needed for the "home service" work, which is conducted on Thursdays at Hamilton park field house. Any one willing to sew for this worthy cause should apply to Mrs. H. G. Earl, phone Vincennes 1193.

"A World in the Making"

The above is the subject of the lecture at the Englewood Sunday Evening club for next Sunday, January 18th, at the Englewood Presbyterian church, 64th st. and Yale ave. The lecturer is one well known to most of our people, and is Rev. Preston F. Bradley, D.D., pastor of the People's Liberal church on the north side and an orator of national repute whose chautauqua lectures are classic and whose general reputation as a lecturer is such as to fill any auditorium in the land. The subject is one of especial interest at this time when all the world is craning its neck to learn what is coming next. The lecture Sunday evening is sure to draw a good house and it is advisable to secure your seat early as Dr. Bradley has many friends in this part of the city who are sure to rush to see him. The music under Mr. Glenwood Preble and with Mr. Johns as soloist will be particularly good and everyone is cordially welcome.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

Jan. 20th at 2:15 the Hamilton Park Woman's club will be entertained by Miss Frances Coates in songs en costume from the French Old English, Dutch, Colonial and Oriental. Club chorus will meet as usual at 10 a. m. Regular board meeting at 10:30. Class in public speaking at 1 p. m. Public charity card party, Rothschild's grill room, Jan. 16th, 2 p. m.

Fortnightly of Englewood

The Fortnightly of Englewood will meet Jan. 20th at the home of Mrs. R. M. Reed, 7144 Princeton ave. Mr. Llewellyn Jones will speak on "The Philosophy of George B. Foster."

"The Holy City" Cantata To Be Given

Gaul's always-pleasing cantata, "The Holy City," will be the January offering of the Normal Park Baptist choir, William Griswold Smith, director. This fine work with its wealth of melody and lovely effects never ceases to give pleasure to its hearers, especially when given by a choir as capable as this and the usual good crowd will undoubtedly be present on this occasion.

The soloists are, as usual, drawn from Mr. Smith's own forces, and include Mr. George Gordon, whose splendid singing in "Faith and Praise" and Parker's "Holy Child" have shown him one of the coming great church singers of Chicago. The soprano solos will be taken by Mrs. Elizabeth Bliss, the possessor of a powerful and pleasing voice. Miss Ethel Gordon sings the two wonderful contralto numbers with fine appreciation of their message and with a voice of great sympathy and beauty. Mr. Smith sings the tenor solos. Service commences at 7:30, next Sunday, Jan. 18th, at the church at 70th st. and Stewart ave.

Camp Fire News

Mrs. Musser's group of Camp Fire girls met Friday, Jan. 2nd, at the home of Virginia Farrar, 7257 Princeton ave., for a holiday party. The girls played bunco till 10 o'clock, when refreshments were served. Later more games were played, for which prizes were given. The girls left in a group, surrounded by fathers. The guardian and assistant guardian, Miss Croft, were present.

We meet every Friday at the home of Mrs. Musser, the guardian.

Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers Association

The Lewis-Champlain community center has reopened after its enforced vacation due to the coal shortage.

In addition to its regular activities an interesting experiment is being tried. A study room for children who have not accommodations for study at home is open on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9. Attendance is limited to pupils from fifth grade up. If successful this work will be extended.

The shop will be open to the men and women of the district to make or repair articles for use in their own homes. They may bring their old materials, or new, and use the shop in the same manner that they would if it were in their own home.

The regular community dance chaperoned by the Lewis-Champlain Parent-Teachers' association, will be held every Thursday evening.

"Eastern Storm Centers" and What Dr. White Knows of Them

(Next Sunday evening, those who wish have a treat in store at the People's Liberal church when Dr. R. A. White will deliver his illustrated lecture on "Eastern Storm Centers—Through the Mediterranean Countries with a Camera." Could one imagine a greater treat than to hear this eloquent and much traveled lecturer tell what he has seen, heard, and observed in these interesting countries, made especially so by the great war, and then to have the lecture illustrated by the keen observer as he "snapped" views of the important scenes and events especially for this lecture? Many lecturers and writers tell us of the condition of affairs generally in these lands, but no one gets down to actual conditions, to the real people, as they really live, and to the actual facts, as does our own Dr. White who sees and observes with his keen Yankee eyes much more than appears to one less experienced in travel, and altogether with a view of telling his folks at home the facts as he knows them to be at first hand. This will be one of the big bills of the season, and we advise those who want to hear this most interesting illustrated lecture, to go early to secure a good seat. In the morning at 10.30 Dr. White will preach on "If a man dies, shall he live again?"

National Thrift Week

National Thrift week will be celebrated throughout this country Jan. 17-24. The United States government has asked its universal observance by all organizations. It has especially requested the co-operation of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, with its more than two million members, to drive home the need of national thrift in all the departments of life. On Saturday the idea will be started "to save first and spend afterwards." Sunday will be "Thrift Sunday," and it is hoped that from many pulpits will go the message of the relation of economic life to religious well being, and the need of sharing with others. Tuesday will be "Own Your Own Home Day." Wednesday, "Make a Will Day." Thursday, "Thrift in Industry Day." Friday, "Family Budget Day," and Saturday, "Pay Your Bills Day." Miss Georgia Bacon, first vice president of the General Federation, has been in charge of this thrift work and has a complete organization in all the states. Mrs. Frederick Dow, 6438 University ave., is in charge of the work in Illinois.
